FIRES.

At 1:40 this morning Officers Young and Gil, who were on duty in the Fourth ward, noticed the heavens lighted up by a fire which they supposed was in the city limits. They repaired to the scene of conflagration and discovered that it was the tool house in the Presbyterian cemetery. No alarm was turned in and the house was destroyed. On their return they found a pair of overalls in the cemetery road and when they reached the corner of Wilkes and Payne streets they found the jumper which matched the other garment. These finds caused them to believe that the tool house had been robbed and burned. No clue to the incendiaries is in the possession of the officers. A plot of the cemetery, together with records showing the location of graves were burned. The structure was insured for $100. This is the third fire in that neighborhood within a week.—Mr. Chas. Churchman's house and Mr. W. C. Baggett's stable having been destroyed during the past few days.

The alarm of fire about 7:30 this morning was caused by the burning chimney of a house on the north side of Wilkes street, between Columbus and Alfred.

SEEKS DIVORCE.

Mrs. Margaret Mathews Beckham in Washington yesterday filed suit for divorce from William H. F. Beckham, charging infidelity and alleging that after the first year of married life her husband became addicted to liquor, often humiliating her by his actions. She recounts that in Philadelphia he "paid open and undisguised attention to a female" at her boarding place. After he sent her to Delaplane, the wife alleges that he did not send her money to return and that she was forced to apply to relatives for aid. The couple were married June 2, 1900, in Washington. A co-respondent is named by the wife. Conrad H. Syme and W. H. Fowle are attorneys for the complainant.

"WHAT BECAME OF PARKER?"

As was anticipated the Opera House was filled last night with friends of the Elk's Dramatic Club who came to see the repetition of the comedy which was presented for the benefit of the charity fund of Alexandria Lodge. The acting and singing were most enjoyed and the performers did themselves well. It was a good show. A character, which should be mentioned was that of the "limb of the law," Mr. J. W. B. Petty. If our police commission could see him in this role they would give him the next vacancy.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

Leon T. Briner, executor of the estate of Samuel B. Briner, who lost his life November 3, last, when the ferryboat Lakewanna and the Norfolk steamer Washington collided in a fog near Gibson's Point, a short distance north of Alexandria, yesterday entered suit in Washington against the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, for $10,000. Briner, it is alleged, met his end through carelessness and negligence on the part of employees of the two boats.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Oaton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Sarah Richardson, colored, charged with assaulting Mary Jackson, was dismissed.

Mat. Williams, charged with disorderly conduct at the station house, was sent to jail for ten days.

Rosa Johnson, colored, charged with assaulting Mamie Morrison, was fined $5.

The clerk has recently visited the residences of two maid and dogged gentlemen living on the square bounded by King, Cameron, Columbus and Alfred streets, which has caused consternation among the other residents of that square, who are contemplating moving.

THE KILLING OF NOBLE DAVIS

The automobile which was overturned Thursday night causing the death of Noble L. Davis, of this city, is said to have been splintered at a 15 mile-an-hour clip along the Washington-Baltimore boulevard, near the old Badensburg dueling ground beyond the District of Columbia line, at the time of the accident. Davis, it appears, was given permission to use his employer's automobile, and in company with J. H. Scarvel and the Messrs. Heleu Pulliam and Susie Rowse, took a trip for pleasure into the country. When descending the hill leading to the old dueling grounds Davis, it is thought, believed the machine was going to hit the bank on the right of the road. Attempting to bring the heavy 35-horse power Wayne machine into the middle of the road, the front wheels skidded. The machine, after sliding along for several yards, turned completely over. Scarvel and the young women were thrown out into the air. Davis was buried beneath the heavy tonneau and his life crushed out. As soon as Scarvel and the women could get themselves together, they looked for Davis and found him pinned under the car. So far as they knew he never uttered a sound after the car fell on him. His chest was crushed.

Davis's remains were brought to this city this afternoon. The funeral will take place from the residence of his uncle, Capt. George Davis, 107 Prince street, tomorrow afternoon.

ANOTHER ABDUCTION.

Mr. Matthew Bramell, who lives near the Poor House, in Alexandria county, appeared at the station house this morning and stated that a young man answering the description of Albert A. Samson, who was arrested in this city Thursday evening for kidnapping a little son of Mr. Luckett's, had been sent to Clark's store in the neighborhood to purchase a pie and some candy, and on his way home the man stopped him and placed him in his wagon. He asked the child his age and took the pie and candy from him. He then searched the boy's pockets for money. The man subsequently brought the child to this city and put him out of the wagon in front of an upper King street grocery store. The little boy managed to make his way home, arriving there about 2 o'clock, after his absence had occasioned his parents no little anxiety.

KILLED THE GROUND HOG.

Among the miscellaneous assortment of country produce exhibited by Mr. George Young in market this morning was the historic ground hog. It had been flayed and eviscerated, and was offered for sale at 50 cents. At a late hour no one had purchased the rodent, buyers seemingly not being disposed to feast upon the creature which had so long plagued meteorological conditions. The ground hog had occasioned Mr. Young, who lives in lower Fairfax county, considerable loss from its propensity to feast on young plants, and he finally determined to send it to the land of shadows, or where "everlasting spring abides," a haven where the services of a weather prophet are not needed. At an unlucky moment, when the rodent was not looking for his shadow, but for something to eat, Mr. Young sent a load of shot into its head.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

The subjects of Rev. W. F. Watson, pastor of the First Baptist Church, tomorrow, will be: Morning, "The Prayer of Jesus For His Disciples." Evening, "An Unfortunate Petition." Those having in charge the sale of tickets for the humorous lecture to be delivered by Rev. W. F. Watson, entitled "The Preacher's Laughs," and musical to be given at the Young People's Building next Monday evening for the library building fund of the Baptist Sunday school, are meeting with great success.

MEN'S MEETING.

A meeting for men will be held in the Young People's building tomorrow afternoon at 8:30 o'clock. There will be choirs from the Gypsy Smith evangelistic campaign in Washington. Some of the songs they sang, some incidents of the meeting and something about the gypsy preacher by Mr. Percy S. Foster, the musical director.

D. A. R.

The November meeting of Mt. Vernon Chapter, D. A. R., was held yesterday afternoon in the apartment of Mrs. Frances S. Danenhower, at the Fairfax. The meeting was one of more than usual interest and enthusiasm and the attendance was much above the average. After business the Chapter was delightfully entertained by its hostess, Mrs. Danenhower.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

A called meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary to R. E. Lee Camp will be held in Lee Camp Hall, Confederate Veterans' Building, Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The object of the meeting is to perfect plans for the annual oyster supper to be held December 3. All members are requested to attend.

THE MARKET.

The market this morning showed no marked changes in supply nor prices from those of last Saturday. Eggs were being held by some bucksters at 40 cents a dozen. Dressed chickens were sold at from 50 to 60 cents each. Butter was unchanged in price and vegetables were firm at former rates.

OPERA HOUSE.

The main building of the Opera House will again be the scene of pleasure to-night when Dan Ely, the celebrated black-faced comedian, will entertain the occasion with his wit and humor. In addition Misses Daisy Lowman and Miss Robertson will entertain the audience with their songs and dancing. Don't fail to see them.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. R. E. Acton is visiting relatives in North Carolina.

On Wednesday afternoon of next week, Mr. Frank Lee Slaymaker will lead to the altar Miss Margaret Josephine McCoy. The ceremony will take place in the Methodist Church at Riverston, and will be performed by the pastor of that city assisted by Mr. Saylor.

Mr. John H. Parrott, formerly of this city but now of Roanoke, spent yesterday in this city and was warmly greeted by his many friends.

The daughters of Judge O. E. Nicol will arrive from Manassas next week, when the Judge and Mrs. Nicol will open their residence on north Washington street. Misses Pauline and Julia Nicol, the two grown young ladies of the family, will be in society this season in Alexandria.

Mr. William T. Hinken is seriously ill of typhoid fever at his home in this city.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Alexandria Amusement Company will furnish their patrons tonight one of the best evening's entertainment in moving pictures ever enjoyed in this city. It is needless to say that the house will be crowded as this is the usual condition of this place of amusement. The following pictures will be shown: "Caught in the Web," "All on Account of a Butterfly," "A Tenant's Revenge," "Door Porter's Sad End," and "That Awful Mother-in-Law," all good—the last of which is a fine comedy.

As is usually the case the Elite Motion Picture House was again crowded last night to witness the excellent pictures shown. That they were good it is needless to say, as the pictures at this house are always entertaining.

M. P. CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. G. I. Humphreys left this morning for Richmond, where he goes upon invitation of Mr. S. K. McKee, general secretary of The Young Men's Christian Association, to make two addresses tomorrow afternoon. At 2:30 o'clock he will address the boys' meeting on the subject, "Our Country's Hope." At 3:30 he will speak on "The Man Of The Hour" at the men's meeting. These meetings are held every Sunday under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

Rev. O. M. Zipp, pastor of the Balltown M. E. Church, will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist Protestant Church at both services Sunday in the absence of the pastor.

FIRE AT COLONIAL BEACH.

Early Thursday night fire broke out in the boiler room in Goldman's grist and saw mill and basket factory at Colonial Beach. The flames spread to an oyster packing plant which was in the mill building and owned and operated by E. N. Hammond, of this city, and later to a nearby dwelling, all of which were destroyed. Mr. Olive conducted a store in part of the mill building, and his stock was burned. There was no insurance on the property. The loss is estimated at from $8,000 to $10,000.

AUCTION SALES.

Capt. R. F. Knox, auctioneer, sold at auction at noon today in front of the Royal street entrance to the City Hall a lot of ground with the improvements thereon on the south side of Duke street, west of West street, to E. L. Sinclair for $1,525.

Capt. Knox also sold at the same time and place a lot of ground with the improvements thereon at the intersection of Duke and Commerce streets to F. C. Spinks for $980.

TRUSTEES ELETED.

At a meeting of the trustees of the Alexandria Hospital held this morning, Col. Arthur Herbert presiding, Messrs. E. L. Daingerfield, W. B. Smoot, John Leubacker and W. A. Moore were elected trustees of that institution to fill vacancies existing in the board—subject to confirmation by the City Council.

"OLD SONGS" TO BE REPEATED.

Having had many request for another recital of "Old Songs" the directors of the Alexandria Free Kindergarten will in the near future give their friends an opportunity of spending another delightful evening and at the same time help one of the sweetest charities of the city.
